

Journey Behavioral Consulting, LLC

BCBA-Owned Consulting Company

Who We Are

Journey Behavioral Consulting, LLC is a BCBA-owned consulting company led by former special education teachers with over 30 years of combined experience in school-based behavior support. Our team specializes in bridging the gap between behavioral science and classroom practice, providing schools with practical, evidence-based strategies that foster meaningful change.

What we do

Our work blends clinical expertise with real-world classroom experience. We design behavior supports that are practical, sustainable, and educationally relevant, with a strong emphasis on:

- Teacher and paraprofessional support
- Burnout reduction and staff retention
- Clear role expectations and implementation fidelity
- Behavior Skills Training (BST)
- Compliance with IDEA and Illinois Administrative Code

We prioritize building internal capacity so schools are supported long after services conclude.

Our Services

Why Partner with Us

We are former Special Education Teachers and experienced BCBAs who understand school systems, classroom implementation, and team collaboration. We focus on practical strategies, consistent implementation, and meaningful skill generalization across school environments.

Katie M. Teresi, M.Ed., BCBA, LBA Chief Executive Officer / Founder

Katie is a Board Certified Behavior Analyst and educator with over 17 years of experience supporting individuals with autism and related disabilities. She partners with families and school teams to develop practical, meaningful supports that promote independence, confidence, and real-world skill development. Katie believes every learner's path is unique and is committed to walking alongside students, families, and educators throughout that journey.

Heather M. Dickinson, M.Ed., BCBA, LBS2-BIS Executive Director / Partner

Heather is a Board Certified Behavior Analyst and licensed special education teacher with over 15 years of experience supporting students with autism and related disabilities. Her professional background includes roles as an RBT, paraprofessional, and self-contained classroom teacher, providing her with strong, real-world insight into school-based behavior consultation and team collaboration.
